About the Conference

Please join us for the 2011 NAALJ Midyear Meeting and Conference, Back to Basics: Building Blocks for Effective Administrative Adjudication.

The conference, hosted by the Georgia Association of Administrative Judiciary, will take place May 2-4 at the State Bar of Georgia Conference Center in vibrant downtown Atlanta.

The conference kicks off Monday evening with a reception at the Glenn Hotel's dramatic open-air rooftop lounge, which offers breathtaking views of the city and Centennial Olympic Park. On Tuesday and Wednesday, a first-rate educational program features dynamic speakers offering an in-depth look at the essentials of administrative law. The conference fee also includes an optional Tuesday evening group outing (details TBA).

Conference Programming

The educational program at the conference will include instruction in:

- Advanced Evidence, with an analysis of specific evidentiary issues that arise in the administrative hearing context
- Statutory Interpretation: Mastering Chevron and its Progeny
- Clear Legal Writing for ALJs: Advanced Techniques for Writing Effective Decisions
- Special Education, including a primer on autism spectrum disorders and comprehensive evaluations of students with disabilities
- Strategies for managing pro se parties and vexatious counsel

Conference Presenters

Paul S. Milich is a Professor of Law at Georgia State University and the author of the COURTROOM HANDBOOK ON GEORGIA EVIDENCE.

Linda D. Jellum is an Associate Professor of Law at Mercer University and the author of Chevron's Demise: A Survey of Chevron From Infancy to Senescence in the ADMINISTRATIVE LAW REVIEW.

Kendall L. Kerew is an Instructor of Law and Co-Director of the Externship Program at Georgia State University.

A. Michele Lease is an Associate Professor of Educational Psychology at the University of Georgia and Director of the School Psychology Clinic.

Jonathan M. Campbell is an Associate Professor of Educational Psychology and Instructional Technology at the University of Georgia and specializes in autism spectrum disorders.

Hotel Accommodations

The Glenn Hotel is conveniently located directly across the street from the State Bar, in the heart of downtown Atlanta.
